

Harmony of the Gospels		Events on Holy Monday	Scriptures
Section	Page		Matthew	Mark	Luke	John
129a	173	Cursing of the fig tree having leaves but no figs	21:18-19a	11:12-14
129b	173	Second cleansing of the temple	21:12-13	11:15-18	19:45-48
130a	174	Request of some Greeks to see Jesus and necessity of the Son of Man's being lifted up				12:20-36a
130b	175	Responses to Jesus and Jesus' responses to crowds				12:36b-50

Small Group Questions

1. What is "righteous" anger, and how should it be expressed without causing injury to others or a sinful act on my own accord - in deed or thought?
2. Am I standing in the way of someone else coming to God as did the money changers and vendors? How might I better clear the way for people to get closer to God and worship Him?
3. In what ways is my life not fruitful? What can be pruned or cultivated to make it so?
4. What light has Jesus shed within our minds today?
5. What life and light is yet needed within me?

Map K

MONDAY Jesus' Last Week
Mt. 21:18-19; Mk. 11:11-19; Lk. 19:45-48; Jn. 12:20-50

1. Jesus leaves Bethany on Monday morning.
2. On his way into Jerusalem that morning Jesus curses a fig tree on the Mount of Olives. (Mk.11:12-14)
3. When Jesus arrives in the temple area he drives out those who were buying and selling. He turns over the tables and would not allow anyone to carry merchandise through the temple courts. (Mt.21:12;Mk.11:15;Lk.19:45)
4. Greeks come to see Jesus. (Jn.12:20)
5. Jesus left the city in the evening. (Mk.11:19)